

Last Updated: August 2026

Investing and participating in financial transactions involves risk. Before making any investment or financial decision, you should carefully consider your financial objectives, investment horizon, risk tolerance and the possibility of loss.

The information provided on the Nidhi Equity Private Limited (“Nidhi Equity Private Limited”) website is for general informational purposes only and should not be considered investment, financial, legal or tax advice.

1. Investment Risk

Investments may involve substantial risk, including the possible loss of part or all of the invested capital. There is no assurance that any investment will generate a return or that the original amount invested will be recovered.

Past performance or historical information should not be regarded as an indication or guarantee of future performance.

2. Market Risk

The value of investments can fluctuate due to changes in economic conditions, market conditions, interest rates, inflation, business performance, regulatory developments, geopolitical events and other factors.

Market conditions may change rapidly and may adversely affect the value or performance of an investment.

3. Business and Company-Specific Risk

Investments in companies, businesses or startups may be subject to risks including:

- Business and operational risks
- Management and execution risks
- Competition
- Changes in consumer or market demand
- Regulatory and legal changes
- Technology and cybersecurity risks
- Funding and liquidity constraints
- Changes in economic conditions
- Failure to achieve projected business objectives

There can be no assurance that a company or business opportunity will achieve its expected objectives or projected performance.

4. Liquidity Risk

Certain investments, particularly investments in private companies or unlisted businesses, may have limited liquidity.

An investor may not be able to sell, transfer or otherwise exit an investment when desired or at the expected value.

5. Valuation Risk

Any valuation, projection, estimate, forecast or indicative financial information presented on the Website may be based on assumptions that can change over time.

Actual results may differ materially from projections or estimates.

6. Regulatory and Legal Risk

Changes in applicable laws, regulations, taxation, government policies or regulatory requirements may affect businesses, investments and financial transactions.

Regulatory approval or registration of an entity does not eliminate the commercial or investment risks associated with a particular transaction or opportunity.

7. No Guarantee of Returns

Nidhi Equity Private Limited does not guarantee or represent that any investment, business opportunity or transaction will generate a particular return or achieve a particular financial outcome.

Any reference to potential returns, growth, performance or future opportunities should not be interpreted as a promise or guarantee.

8. Independent Evaluation

Users and prospective investors should conduct their own independent assessment and due diligence before entering into any investment or financial transaction.

Where appropriate, you should obtain independent advice from qualified financial, legal, tax or other professional advisers.

9. Website Information

Information published on the Website may be updated, changed or withdrawn without notice.

Although Nidhi Equity Private Limited makes reasonable efforts to provide accurate information, no representation or warranty is made that all information is complete, current or free from errors.

The Website should not be relied upon as the sole basis for making an investment or financial decision.

10. No Investment Advice or Solicitation

Nothing contained on this Website constitutes investment advice, financial advice, an offer, invitation or solicitation to purchase or sell any security, financial product or investment.

Any transaction or investment opportunity involving Nidhi Equity Private Limited will be subject to applicable eligibility requirements, due diligence, approvals, definitive documentation and applicable laws and regulations.

11. RBI Registration

Nidhi Equity Private Limited is an RBI-registered Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC).

RBI registration or regulation does not imply that RBI has approved or endorsed any particular investment, transaction, product, service, return or business opportunity offered or discussed by Nidhi Equity Private Limited.

12. Limitation of Responsibility

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Nidhi Equity Private Limited shall not be responsible for investment decisions made solely on the basis of information contained on this Website. Investors are responsible for understanding the risks associated with their own investments and for making decisions based on their individual circumstances.

13. Acknowledgement

By accessing or using this Website, you acknowledge that:

- You understand that financial and investment activities involve risk.
- You understand that returns are not guaranteed.
- You will not rely solely on Website information when making financial decisions.
- You will undertake appropriate due diligence before entering into any transaction.
- You may seek independent professional advice where appropriate.

If you do not understand the risks associated with a particular investment or financial transaction, you should seek advice from an appropriately qualified professional before proceeding.